

CORRESPONDENCE.

Minden Murmuring.

It is surprising how far a candidate for office can see a voter before election and how to him.

The first of a course of five lectures was delivered in the M. E. church in Minden by the Rev. Thos. G. Huckle on Friday evening Oct 27th. A large appreciative audience greeted the lecture. The second will be given on Tuesday evening Nov 14 by the Rev. Thos. Stalker of Port Huron subject "Looking for a man." The course promises to be a grand success.

The Ubbly and Tyre M. E. churches are to be dedicated on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

The liveliest town in Sanilac Co is Minden. The reason is York & McDonald are paying the highest cash price for grain.

Obrien J. Atkinson made a political speech in Minden last Friday evening. The talented lawyer has a zeal worthy of a better cause.

Joseph Mayhew and Jane Lindsay of White Rock were married last Sabbath in Minden by Rev J. Bettis.

Mr Mulloy a brother of Wm Mulloy our druggist, who has been residing in Minden during the summer, left last Monday with his family for Texas.

Brockway Hits.

Road Dist No. 4 has about a mile of the best road that there is in the township. The work was constructed under the supervision of Lansing Spenceburg the overseer of said district. It would be well if the voters in the district would keep Mr S. in office should he continue to do as good work as he is now doing.

The M. E. S. S. at this place held their anniversary and a concert last Wednesday evening. It was a decided success and the little folks performed their parts to perfection. May good luck attend them always.

Died—After almost a week's sickness under the watchful care of Dr W. H. Gowan aided by Dr's Mitchell and Gowan, Elmer, youngest son of Jas Harris, aged 4 years, 6 mos, 15 days. The funeral services were held on Monday, Nov 11th, at 1 o'clock p. m. in the M. E. church, conducted by Rev A. J. Holmes.

Last Sunday the M. E. S. S. elected their officers. Supt, C. W. Stratton; Asst Supt, Wm Moore; Sect, Norman Herbert; Treas, Wm Harris; Librarian Geo McIntyre.

Geo Middleton and family were visiting at Henry Pearce's this week.

Isaac Curry's son was not shot with a bullet but with shot. He is now doing well.

Thomas Collins was taken to the county jail last week by the deputy Sheriff, Franklin Barker, for selling intoxicating liquors. It is thought that while there he will sober up once more.

Henry Goushman has taken out a license to sell intoxicating liquors.

Lynn Happening.

Delayed Correspondence

The busy season is almost over and farmers are allowed to breathe freely again. Crops of all descriptions have yielded abundantly the past season and farmers, generally, are prosperous at least they ought to be, as nature has done her part. Corn husking and potato digging is now the order of the day and the greater part of this is done. Fall wheat does not promise very well on the ground now. It does not grow near as well as it did in July during which month the farmers of this state lost millions of dollars by having their golden grain standing green in the shock. Winter wheat was sown the past week in our township. Beautiful autumn weather and thunder storms to climax the splendor.

School has commenced in school district No. 1 at Lynn corners. Alex Doyle of Capas is "teaching the young to shoot."

The citizens of this district have built a splendid school house the past summer on the site from which the old school house—or Town Hall—was removed. The size of the new structure is 28x38 ft. Cost of the building with seats, desk, bell etc in the vicinity of $5000. The people of the district may well feel proud of their "new school house."

School commences in school district No. 4 on Monday the 6th with Miss Cora Reid as teacher.

Martin Lovell has purchased the Bottomly 80 acres of land on Sec 27 which lies mostly on the big marsh. Mr L. has sowed some wheat on it this fall and intends to put the most of it into spring crop, he is busily engaged now at fall plowing. This is a grand fall for clearing up and working on low lands.

New text books in our school is now the rage.

An Alligator 18 inches in length is the latest in our neighborhood. It is a product from the swamps of Alabama. Wm McKinstry is the possessor. Rather a peculiar animal for a pet yet the novelty of the creature is what takes.

Elston Huffman who recently resigned the office of Township clerk has moved to Capas and is now clerking in S. S. Brooker's dry goods store.

It is predicted that this town will poll an unusual large republican vote. A republican meeting was held at Lynn corners one evening the past week. Hon. James R. McQuinn of Capas entertained the audience in a neat little speech. He will undoubtedly be elected to the state senate.

WHO WILL MISS ME!

(By J. A. B.)

Who will miss me who will weep,
When I lay me down to sleep,
In my cold and narrow bed,
With the stars above my head,
Where the grasses wave and creep,
Who will miss me, who will weep,
Who will shed one kindly tear
When they gaze upon a bier,
Whose kindly hands will place to bloom
A flower on my lonely tomb,
And bid of me a kindly thought
When others have me quite forgot.

You can get a trial bottle of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy at F. A. Baker's drug store which will convince you that the regular 50 cent size will cure any case of Internal, External or Itching Piles, besides all unpleasant sensations, Scaly Eruptions, sores, Itching, Swelling, and for a general purgative. It has no equal. Do not be misled by cheap imitations.

BIRTHS.

On Saturday, Nov 4th, the wife of Thos Darcy of twins, a boy and girl.

DIED.

On Saturday, Nov 4th, infant daughter of Mr and Mrs T. Darcy.

At Brockway, on Saturday evening Nov 4 at 10 o'clock, Elmer, youngest boy of Mr and Mrs Jas Harris aged 4 yrs 6 mos, 15 days.

Newspaper Proverbs.

Blessed is he that runneth a paper.
Thrice blessed is he that payeth for his paper.
Blessed is the farmer who readeth a paper; for he shall not tumble to the racket of the patent fraud man.
Blessed be he who desireth not to be eternally puffed; for his reward shall be exceeding great.
Blessed is the woman who hath sense enough to know that the reason her name was not mentioned in the personals was because the editor was ignorant of the fact that she was needing a personal.

Blessed is he who advertiseth. His happiness shall be unbounded and his joys unnumbered. He will live long in the land, die happy, and have a funeral procession three miles long.

Blessed is the woman who controlleth her tongue and gossipeth not. The stars in her crown shall shine like diamonds of the first water, and she shall be given a seat next the leader of the angelic choir, while her sister who ruleth not her wig-wag, but goeth about lying about her neighbor shall grovel in outer darkness, where there shall be perpetual gossiping and sound of grinding teeth.

Blessed is the man who hath no suggestions about editing of a newspaper. May his days be long on the land of sunshine and his passage across the mystic river tranquil. His death will be the occasion of great mourning among the editorial fraternity.
